

JOURNAL
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 14 July 1964

1. (Unclassified - DDS) Spoke with Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, regarding Mr. Houston's proposed comments on the Federal Pay Act. Mr. Johnson saw no problem with submitting a draft based upon the Senate bill and an alternate based upon the language we expect will result from the House-Senate Conference.
2. (Unclassified - DDS) Spoke to a Mrs. Frances Donovan, Secretary in the office of Senator George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.), concerning the Senator's letter to the Agency. The Senator desired materials concerning nuclear weapons for a group of debaters from South Dakota. Mrs. Donovan was appreciative of the fact that the Agency possesses no unclassified items of value for this purpose. No further action is required.
3. (Unclassified - DDS) Spoke to a Miss Ann Waggoner in the office of Senator Stuart Symington (D., Mo.). Miss Waggoner had forwarded a letter from one of the Senator's constituents demanding to know whether the Congress or anyone else had control over the CIA. Miss Waggoner had sent the letter to the White House but had no objection to the White House action in referring it to CIA. She was given a letter from Mr. Warner to the Senator pointing out the various committees supervising CIA along with unclassified materials explaining the nature of the Agency. No further action is required.
4. (Unclassified - DDS) Called John Newhouse, Consultant, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, regarding his request for five translated copies of REVOLUCION, published in Paris. Based on information received from [redacted] I explained that REVOLUCION is available in English from the Library of Congress. In Mr. Newhouse's absence, this information was conveyed to his secretary who indicated that in that event no further action on our part would be required.
